

Free Consultation/ Skin Assessment

Your skin will be cleansed and analyzed, using visual inspection and tools to assess the current condition of your skin. A wood's lamp is used to determine the extent of sun damage. Other portions of the assessment include skin sensitivity, skin type, oil production or lack of, current skin care regime, lifestyle considerations and dermatological aspects. Professional medical based skin regimens will be prescribed as well as professional treatments to improve your skin's health.